

CALIX

TABLES AND SMALL TABLES | Indoor
BAXTER P.

The Calix collection of wooden coffee tables and consoles by Baxter captures a refined elegance, drawing inspiration from the pure elegance of nature with its sculptural, rounded lines. Each element conveys a conversation between tradition and innovation. The sturdy frame, made from solid lime wood, takes centre stage with its polished black shellac finish, which beautifully highlights the wood's natural grain. The matt scratched shelf introduces a tactile and visual contrast, adding depth and character. The sinuous and organic forms of Calix recall the timeless elegance of ethnic and ritual art transformed into a functional work. Available in different sizes, the coffee table and console lend themselves to multiple furnishing interpretations, embracing a cultured and sophisticated taste.
